

Heart connection.

It's poetry. It's history. It's the story of our lives.

You may recognize your face and your own journey in this layered expedition through our times. Artist-writer Sharon Skolnick-Bagnoli tracks 30 years of sunshine and storm across two centuries with her incisive lyrical-topical poetry, illuminating many sorts of shiny objects, from snow globes to crystal eggs to wind chimes: ambition to love and loss to spirit, and discovering along the way that some that glitters may indeed be gold.

126 pages perfect bound, profusely illustrated with original art by the author. Published by Beatitude Press, Berkeley, California. $18. plus $2. postage. Details and sample pages: www.visigraf.com. For an autographed first edition copy, call 415.455.8221.